

WILLIAM S. DOWNING, farmer and formerly a lumberman, was born at Lowreytown, Luzerne county, December 4th, 1826, and married Miss Mary Markle, of Town Hill, this county. He enlisted in Company I 143d Pa. volunteers, August 12th, 1862, and was discharged June 23d, 1864, on account of wounds received in action.

C. B. DURLAND, farmer, carpenter and builder at Sweet Valley, was born April 21st, 1838, in North Moreland, Wyoming county. His wife was formerly Sarah C. Furgerson, of Jackson, Pa. In February, 1880, Mr. Durland was elected justice of the peace for five years.

LUTHER DYMOND is a licensed exhorter of the Methodist church, and has been a school director of Franklin township. He was born in 1822, and married in 1844 to Rebecca Snell; he has eight children.

J. H. EDSON, a farmer and wheelwright at Town Hill, was born at that place, August 24th, 1845, and married Mary E. Harrison, of Town Hill. He served in Company F 149th Pennsylvania volunteers from August 16th, 1862, to the close of the civil war.

WILLIAM A. FRANKLIN was born at Huntington Mills, September 14th, 1826, and married Miss A. E. McDaniels, of Sussex county, N. J. He is the father of three sons and three daughters. He was born in the house built by his grandfather, Samuel Franklin, and occupied by his father, William Franklin, till the latter died in June, 1829. Mr. Franklin is a farmer and a teacher.

JAMES GARRAHAN, a native of Plymouth, Pa., was born December 26th, 1828, and married in December, 1852, to Miss Mary A. Pringle, of Plymouth, Pa. He has been justice of the peace of Dallas since 1870, and is engaged in the mercantile and lumber business at that place.

FRANKLIN GAY, of Franklin township, son of William and Nancy Gay, was born in 1842, married in 1868, and has three children. He has been an inspector of election; is a member of the Baptist church.

GEORGE GEARHART was a native of New Jersey, having been born in Lebanon, Hunterdon county, February 19th, 1792. He married Rebecca McPherson, of Mount Bethel, Northampton county, Pa., who was born April 10th, 1765. He served three months in the war of 1812, and settled here in 1828. He was a farmer and weaver, but retired from business some time before his death, which occurred March 2nd, 1851.

J. H. GERHARD was born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., December 23d, 1849, and was married March 20th, 1876, to Delia Burgen, of Schuylkill, Pa. Their children are Bessie E., born in January 3d, 1877, and Katie M., March 22nd, 1878. Mr. Gerhard is a dealer in tin and hardware at Dallas.

CHARLES GOOD, farmer, residing at Waterton, is a native of Plainsville, Pa., and was born July 10th, 1832. He married Miss C. A. Davenport, of Town Line. His father, Jacob Good, located here in 1836, on the Fellows farm, where he still resides, aged eighty-eight. He was in the war of 1812, and is one of the few surviving pensioners of the war.

NATHANIEL GOSS is a native of Huntington. He was born March 29th, 1817, and married Mrs. H. G. Barrett, also of Huntington. He was formerly a miller, but is now farming. His ancestors were eastern people, who settled under the Connecticut claim.

JOHN MINER GOSS was formerly a carpenter and joiner, but is now engaged in farming. He is a native of Huntington township, and was born September 27th, 1812. Mrs. Goss, formerly Miss Mary Love, was born in Huntington, November 17th, 1809.

RICHARD GWYNN GOSS was born in Fairmount, September 23d, 1847. His wife was Caroline Clempot, also of Fairmount. Mr. Goss is a farmer. He has been postmaster and assessor.

CHARLES H. HALL is a native of Bradford county, Pa., and was born April 29th, 1846. He enlisted in Company E 9th Pa. cavalry, in 1861, and served three years as bugler. He was married July 7th, 1867, to Miss Nettie A. Stevens, of Nicholson, Pa. He located in Dallas in 1879, where he is engaged in the drug business, and is also postmaster.

J. D. HARRISON, farmer, was born in Huntington township, on the 20th of April, 1814, and married Nancy A. Gearhart, of Fairmount, who was born July 11th, 1817.

COLONEL A. N. HARVEY is a merchant, miller, farmer and stock raiser at Harveyville, and has been postmaster at that place since 1849. He was born at Harveyville, April 4th, 1827. His wife was Miss Sarah M. Crawford, of Williamsport, Pa. Colonel Harvey was commissioned by Governor Bigler.

CYRUS A. HAZLETT, who is now farming, was at one time a cabinet maker and undertaker at Ross, and for five years a contractor of carpenter work at Ashley. As a member of Company B 199th Pa. volunteers he enlisted August 23d, 1864; was wounded at Fort Gregg April 2nd, 1865, and was discharged June 23d, 1865. He was born in Mansfield

Warren county, N. J., February 4th, 1849, and married Huldah Sutliff, of Fairmount.

CHARLES D. HENDERSON was born in Brier Creek township, Pa., November 3d, 1846, and is now engaged in farming in Dallas borough. He was deputy sheriff of Luzerne county from 1872 to 1878.

AMOS B. HESS, of Harveyville, is a farmer and market gardener. He was born in Sugarloaf, Columbia county, Pa., November 5th, 1845, and was married September 20th, 1869, to Martha A. Hess, of Huntington, who was born April 5th, 1851. Mr. Hess was a private in Company K 171st Pennsylvania volunteers, also in Company D of the 58th during the war of 1861-65.

M. E. HESS, a resident of Pine Creek and native of Sugarloaf township, Columbia county, Pa., was born October 10th, 1833, and married Harriet C. Golder, of the same township. He has been engaged in the milling business in Huntington since December 13th, 1856. His great grandfather, William Hess, settled in Sugarloaf in 1787.

WILLIAM J. HONEYWELL was born in Dallas, Pa., in 1824, and in 1847 married Miss Sarah Perry, of Wilkes-Barre. He is extensively engaged in lumbering and farming.

STEPHEN HORN is a mechanic and painter. He enlisted in Company E 96th Pennsylvania volunteers; was wounded at Cold Harbor, Va., and taken prisoner, and was two and a half months in Libby and Belle Isle prisons. He was born in Horntown, Pa., February 11th, 1835. His wife was Miss Emeline Andreas, of Butler Valley, Pa.

AMOS HOWARD, farmer and hotel keeper at Huntington Mills, was born June 5th, 1838, in Maine, Broome county, N. Y. Mrs. Howard was Miss Carrie M. Councilman, of Maine, N. Y. Mr. Howard enlisted in Company E 50th N. Y. engineers September 3d, 1861, and was commissioned lieutenant of the company December 20th, 1864; he was discharged July 3d, 1865.

R. B. HUFF is a farmer residing at Town Hill, where he was born April 19th, 1856. His wife was Lizzie Newton, daughter of T. D. Newton, of Town Hill. His parents were early settlers in Hanover.

G. W. HUFF, also a farmer at Town Hill, is a native of Sullivan county, N. Y., and was born November 20th, 1830. He married Miss M. F. Myers, of Huntington. He has been poormaster of the township, and a merchant at Town Hill.

EDWIN F. KAMERLY, a practicing physician and druggist at Town Hill, is a native of Philadelphia, Pa., and was born August 10th, 1838. Mrs. Kamerly was Ella B. Campbell, daughter of William Campbell, of Philadelphia. Dr. Kamerly graduated from Jefferson Medical College, in 1861, and located at Town Hill in 1867. His children are Kate E., Edwin F., Mary P. and James C.

J. W. KINGSBURY is a farmer and resides at Dodson's Chapel, where he was born, March 11th, 1840. He married Miss E. M. Sutliff, of Huntington. His grandfather located here soon after the Revolutionary war, and died at the advanced age of 80 years.

NATHAN KLEINTOB, who was elected justice of the peace in 1875 and 1880, is a native of Salem township, and was born August 19th, 1829. He was principal musician of Company F 7th regiment Pennsylvania reserve corps three years from June, 1861. He married Mary Ann Swank, of Millinville, Columbia county, who died February 10th, 1876.

F. A. B. KOONS, merchant, farmer and paper manufacturer at Huntington Mills, was born in Huntington township, April 7th, 1831. His wife was Miss Helen M. Larned, of Exeter, Mr. Koons has filled different civil offices. He enlisted November 8th, 1861, and was taken prisoner at the second battle of Bull Run and confined in Libby prison. He was subsequently commissioned captain in the 56th Pennsylvania.

J. R. KOONS, of Huntington Mills, was born in New Columbus, Pa., July 22nd, 1838, and is a paper manufacturer. He married Miss C. C. Cortright, of Foundryville, Pa. He enlisted in Company F 7th Pennsylvania cavalry, June 24th, 1861, and served three years and nine months. He was a prisoner seven months in Libby, Florence and Andersonville.

T. M. LANDON, millwright, was born in 1822, in Delaware county, N. Y., and in 1862 was married to Mary E. Washburn, of the same county. He was formerly engaged in blacksmithing.

MARTIN LAWLER, farmer, was born at Jeffersonville, Sullivan county, N. Y., October 5th, 1832. He is carrying on a tannery at Kunkle.

SAMUEL LETTEER, farmer, was born December 15th, 1834, and is a native of Ransom township, Lackawanna county. He married Elizabeth Harrison, of Fairmount. From September 1st, 1864, he served as a member of Company H 186th Pennsylvania volunteers till June, 1865, and was wounded at Five Forks.